BEAR TRACK PRESS BOOKS & PROGRAMS FOR LIBRARY AND AFTER-SCHOOL

• ARTWILD! - ART, BONES, & CRITTERS

For grades K-5. Back to basics with this fun nature explorer art camp. Be a citizen scientist, learn about amazing water dwellers and how to help them—even those carnivorous ones—as we investigate, play a game and sketch “bio-facts” and live animals! Make and take a field note book of your finds so you can go out and explore your local lake and pond! Limit 30.

$330/class (supplies included)* 1 1/2 hr.

• Tween & Teen Sketchbook Club!

Ages 10-14, make and collage a cover for a “string journal” to hold your art and journal pages. Learn the basics of drawing and design. Limit 15.

$350/class (most supplies included)* 1 1/2hr.

• Creative Collage for Adults

Adults only please! This class covers design basics while creating layered, mixed media art or a seasonal ornament or art to hang! Optional participant tools: scissors, sewing needle, thread. Limit 15.

$360/class (most supplies included)* 2 1/2hr.

*Mileage $.58 charged after first 100 miles.

ABOUT LORI!

I'm a pond paddling, trail stumbling artist, author, and illustrator of the HOLLY WILD and the Sense-of-Place (Michigan legends) series. I get kids INTO the wild to encourage them to read, write, draw., and explore—because “story lives OUTDOORS!”

Lori was artist-in-residence for Sleeping Bear Dunes Nat. Lakeshore Park in 2007 and Porcupine Mountains Wilderness State Park in 2008
