

MICHIGAN SEASONS IN MIXED MEDIA: ART EXPRESSION WITH LORI TAYLOR

Time for an art break? Create stress-free art in a little over an hour using acrylics, ink, and weird brushes with Michigan artist and illustrator Lori Taylor. This workshop is designed for both the beginner artist and seasoned artist and is a way to relax and layer up your seasonal observations to make art for the wall or greeting cards.

Painting is relaxing and often reveals surprises. In collage there is no making of mistakes, so by putting both together have a fun time creating and capturing the feel of the season. This is a wonderfully valuable and simple art practice you can do with a cup of coffee in an hour at home with minimal supplies. Take a mental vacation! Make art in a wild way! Program length: 1 ½ hrs., ADULTS ONLY, limited space, no experience necessary!
